OUR STORY

We are FUJI for more than 10 years, FUJI JAPANESE RESTAURANT has been a proud pillar of the Stoke Newington community. Located in the very heart of the neighbourhood on Church Street, we have spent over a decade and a half bringing the delicate artistry and soul of Japan to North London. What started as a passion for authentic flavours has grown into a beloved local destination for sushi enthusiasts and families alike.

At Fuji, we believe that no dish can be better than its ingredients. That is why, for 10 years, we have remained committed to sourcing the freshest seasonal produce to create a menu that balances time-honoured techniques with a modern touch. From our meticulously prepared Sashimi to our signature hot dishes, every plate is a celebration of our heritage and our promise of quality to the Stoke Newington community.

Whether you are a longtime regular or visiting us for the first time, we invite you to step inside and experience the "unforgettable taste" that has made us a neighbourhood staple since we first opened our doors.
